Get ready for some major honeymoon inspiration as the sexiest hotel bedrooms in the world have been revealed!

The annual Mr & Mrs Smith awards 'World's Sexiest Bedroom' category has unveiled some spectacular accommodations with jaw-dropping ocean views, luxurious amenities and total privacy.

Basically, the ideal setting for any romantic break.

Topping the list is the seriously glamorous Soneva Javi in the Maldives where couples can enjoy their very own love nest over the crystalline blue ocean waters - the ultimate room with a sea view.

Sounds like total bliss.

The only downside? These luxurious stays don't come cheap - but there's no harm in some dream holiday planning, right?

Check out the top 10 sexiest hotel rooms in the world below...

1. Soneva Javi, the Maldives

It's no surprise that Soneva Javi has topped the list; its villas are the epitome of luxury. Each suite has a full-size private pool, direct access to the breathtaking lagoon waters and very cool features including a retractable roof so you can stargaze without having to leave your bed!

If you can tear yourself away from the room, the resort has its own private beaches, an overwater silent cinema, gardens, water slides and everything you could want for a dream holiday stay.

Sitting right on the cliff edge, the resort's Marangga villas offer seriously spectacular coastal views.

The Waterfront villas include an outdoor bale where you can sleep to make the most of the surroundings, not to mention the villas all boast their own freshwater private pools.

And for a date night to remember, staff can organise torch-lit dinners on the beach, treehouse barbecues and in-villa lobster feasts. Or you can always head to the breathtaking open air spa.

If a safari has always been on your bucket list, this could be the start of your dreams. For a safari, you're in the heart of the world-famous Kruger National Park, where the incredible Kingstons Treehouse offers views of the spectacular scenery stretching for miles, as you sleep high above the treetops.

Back on the ground you'll find plenty of luxury lodges, an outdoor spa and even an art gallery.
